

Make the choice to believe!

Spiritual Training Part 10 (Audio)

This is a powerful metaphor for spiritual training, using the imagery of two doors to illustrate the importance of choosing faith over doubt. Here's a structured approach to developing this teaching further:

The Two Doors: Faith vs. Doubt

1. The Left Door: Door of Doubt

- Characteristics within the Door of Doubt:
 - Fear
 - Worry
 - Lack of blessings
- Consequences of Choosing Doubt:
 - Separation from God's promises (Genesis 3:10 – Adam's fear after disobedience).
 - Vulnerability to attacks from the enemy.
 - Stagnation and spiritual decay.

2. The Right Door: Door of Faith

- Characteristics within the Door of Faith:
 - Boldness
 - Peace
 - Overflowing blessings
- The Call to Walk by Faith:
 - "We walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7).
 - Faith preserves and strengthens our soul.
 - Faith aligns us with God's will and purposes.

3. Faith Over Feelings

- Faith is not dependent on emotions.
- Biblical Example: Jesus wept at Lazarus' tomb yet operated in faith to raise him from the dead (John 11:35-44).
- Crying or experiencing emotions doesn't diminish faith; it shows humanity while trusting God's sovereignty.

4. God's Visual Communication

- The imagery of doors emphasizes a clear choice: one leads to life and blessings, the other to fear and loss.
- Biblical preference for God using objects and visuals to teach (e.g., parables, the Ark of the Covenant).

5. The Enemy's Strategy: Capsule of Doubt

- Satan seeks to entrap believers in doubt, where fear thrives.
- Doubt blinds us to God's promises and makes us susceptible to lies.

6. Jesus' Goal: Capsule of Faith

- Faith keeps fear at bay, though it doesn't eliminate life's challenges.
- Staying in faith requires active trust in God, even amidst attacks.

7. Practical Application

- Daily choose the Door of Faith through prayer, scripture, and trust in God's promises.
- Recognize and reject the enemy's attempts to pull you into doubt.
- Use the imagery of the two doors as a reminder of your spiritual choice every day.

Click here. Main resource.