Exercising Our Delegated Authority: James 4:7 (AMP) - "So be subject to God. Resist the devil [stand firm against him], and he will flee from you."

- Recognize the importance of not just praying, but also actively exercising the authority God has given us.
- Stand firm in resisting the devil's attempts to bring harm and disruption to our schools.
- Declare God's protection, peace, and presence over every school in your community.

Call to Action:

- Let us not delay in our prayers or in exercising our delegated authority.
- Take a stand today, just as David did, with faith and determination, trusting that God will work through us to bring about His will and protection for our schools.

May God bless and guide each of you as you pray and stand in the gap for our educational institutions. Together, we can make a significant impact in ensuring the safety and well-being of students, teachers, and staff across the nation.
